

SIU Trustees Approve Budgetary Requests Totaling $64,683,139

CARBONDALE, Ill.—The Southern Illinois University board of trustees Thursday approved 1957-58 budgetary requests totalling $64,683,139. The board will ask the state legislature to appropriate $25,264,139 for operations and $39,319,000 for new buildings and other capital improvements.

The operations figure was increased $10,586,713 over the appropriation for 1955-57 in the face of an anticipated enrollment increase of 1500 to 2000 students during the next two years. Some $2,109,000 of the increase would be earmarked for salary adjustments, bringing the total payroll request to $17,574,839.

University President D. W. Morris said Southern's efforts to improve the quality of its instructional and research programs have been made extremely difficult because of the necessity of handling abnormally large increases in enrollments. The University's present student body of 8,255 reflects an increase of more than 100 per cent in four years, and it is estimated there will be 7,850 students on campus by 1958 if adequate facilities are available.

Morris said past appropriations from the state legislature had enabled Southern to grow rapidly but the University's over-all program had been hampered by "heavy teaching loads and inability to pay salaries which are competitive with other agencies employing highly trained personnel."

In addition to salary hikes, the $10,575,513 boost in the operations budget request was slated to be used for such things as increasing effectiveness of existing University programs, meeting anticipated enrollment gains during the next two years, and catching up with past enrollment increases for which appropriations were inadequate.

The capital appropriations request would enable Southern to construct 12 new buildings, ranging in cost from $50,000 to $4,500,000. President Morris said many of the 444 students who applied for admission last fall but did not enroll were those who could not find housing or were prevented from attending classes already filled to capacity.

Space Situation Tight
Commenting on the emergency situation regarding buildings, President Morris stated that although several new structures had been added during the past few years, the space situation is actually tighter than ever because of large enrollment increases. If the school is to keep up with prospective enrollments, he said, it will be necessary for the state to provide a massive building program in the near future.

The request also anticipates possible development of additional facilities for higher education in the Madison-St. Clair county area.

The proposed new buildings would house Physical Education and Military Training, Home Economics, College of Education, Industrial Education and Technology, and a School of Business. Almost $3,000,000 will be asked for completion of unfinished buildings.

Noting the progress Southern has made in recent years in instruction, research and area service, President Morris said demands upon the University have in many respects grown more rapidly than its ability to render services, with available finances.

The wedding cake was secured from the Pankey bakery 15 years ago for the reception following the wedding of Robert Grounds and Genevieve Clark at Pankeyville Baptist church.

The reception that followed was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Logsdon, then living in Pankeyville, and Mrs. Logsdon took a piece of the cake and has kept it all these years.

The cake was not kept in an airtight container or it would look a lot better than it does today, but cake is cake and a piece of cake it is.

Both children of Mr. and Mrs. Grounds, Brenda, 11, and Cindy, 8, have tasted the cake kept by Mrs. Logsdon.

I got a look at it yesterday morning at the fire station, where Mr. Logsdon, assistant fire chief, took it for Timmo to inspect.

BIG THINGS that have grown continue to come in to Timmothes. A couple of days ago Mrs. Lucy Joyce of Elizabethtown Route 3 brought in three large turkeys she grew in her garden. The heaviest weighed five pounds.

Then yesterday J. W. Burris of Dorris Heights came in with two lulus of radishes. One was 12 1/8 inches long, the other 11 7/8 inches, or approximately thereabouts.

GOT SOME RED-HANDLED drawers the other day and you ought to see them.

Trouble with them, though, they were about four inches long and they'd have been too little for a glove even if they'd had five legs instead of two.

Did you know that we are right now in the middle of National Long Underwear Week?

Yep. I can prove it because I have a letter which says so. The letter, in its promotion, has this to say: "Most people don't realize it, but long underwear has never become obsolete. In fact, today its popularity is growing faster than ever. The reasons are simple: modern fabrics make possible garments that are lighter in weight, more comfortable, smartly styled and just as warm as their outmoded ancestors.

"No more formless longies with built in scratchiness."

The promotion was sponsored by a nationally known manufacturer of underwear.

FCC Grants Permit For Operation of Paducah Channel 6

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communication Commission Thursday granted Paducah Newspapers, Inc., a permit to operate a new television station on channel 6 in Paducah, Ky.

The decision reversed a recommendation by an FCC hearing examiner which favored a competing application by the Columbia Amusement Co.

County Board Votes to Hike Garrison Bond

Motion Also Made
To Ask Opinion of Attorney General

The Saline County Board of Supervisors yesterday voted to hike the surety bond of Don B. Garrison as county clerk after it was pointed out that his present bonds total $10,000 — $5,000 for county clerk and $5,000 for clerk of the county court.

The matter was brought up by Chairman Howard Patterson, who said he and others were under the impression three or four months ago that the county clerk's bond was $100,000. However, he said, it was learned later they were of the lesser amount.

The board voted yesterday to make the bond for county clerk $50,000 and ordered that this bond and the present $5,000 bonds be placed with the circuit clerk, as is required by statute.

Circuit Clerk Quentin Bowers, summoned to the meeting, told the board he had never seen the county clerk's bonds.

The action of raising the bond came after State's Attorney Robert V. Wilson said he had been studying decisions and that his opinion was that bonds could not be raised or lowered during the term of office of a county official.

A motion was made that the attorney general be asked for an opinion on the hiking of the clerk's bonds while in office.

The record showed that the county clerk's and the treasurer's surety bonds were approved by the county board on Nov. 18, 1954, about two weeks before the two officers began serving their present terms.

Some board members said they (Continued on Page Six) temperatures drop after .77 inch rainfall

Rainfall yesterday measured .77 inch in Harrisburg and .53 inch at Galatia, but the temperature took a drop from the mid-sixties yesterday afternoon to freezing early this morning and today was sunny and pleasant.

The rain did not bring enough water down the creeks for pumping into the standby reservoirs, but the more, than half inch of water in the Galatia area should raise the Lake Harrisburg level.

Amos Doom, superintendent of the water and sewer departments, said the Lake Harrisburg level was down five or five and a half feet from the top of the spillway before yesterday's rain. He said that water had been brought down Middle Fork from the lake to the standby reservoirs on three occasions this summer and fall, and that part of the decline was due to this, although evaporation is the greatest cause of loss of water in warm weather.

The water from Lake Harrisburg has kept the water in the standby reservoirs at a sufficient level the past few months.

Doom also reported that a six-inch pipe designed to help residents of Dorrisville has been laid on Lilly street between South Main and Granger. He said that a bigger volume of water will go into Dorrisville as a result.

The water department, he added, has been plagued the past few days with leaks in water mains, caused by lines breaking due to high pressure needed to flush out mains. The mains had needed flushing for a long time but the job had been held off because of the big demand for water during the summer months.

Mrs. Frank Boyett, former resident, dies

Mrs. Blanche Boyett, wife of Frank Boyett of St. Louis, Mo., former residents of Harrisburg, died in the city hospital there today at 9:30 a. m.

She was the daughter of Charley Cox of Harrisburg. The body is being returned to Harrisburg to the Gibbons funeral home. Further details will be announced later.

KEY CLUB CHARTER is shown being presented to Bill Bottomley, president of the newly-organized club at the Harrisburg Township high school by George Fisher of Mt. Carmel, Governor-elect of the Illinois-Eastern Iowa district of Kiwanis International. Charter night was observed Tuesday evening at a joint meeting of the charter members of the Key club and the Harrisburg Kiwanis club, sponsoring organization, at which parents of the Key club members were guests. Shown in photo above are John Schork, Kiwanian and faculty sponsor of the Key club at the HTHS; Leon Whitney, Anna, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis Division 16; Bottomley; Governor Fisher; and Charles Anderson of Marion, lieutenant governor of Division 10 of Key clubs. The photo was taken by Ronnie Doerge, of Ronnie's Studio, president of the local Kiwanis club.

Harrisburg to Receive $5,272 For August Tax

Harrisburg's share from city sales tax collections on August business will be $5,272.46, it was announced today in Springfield.

Other county collections: Eldorado $1,867.77, Carrier Mills $700.19, Galatia $210.33, Raleigh $64.60 and Stonefort $107.53.

Collections for other southern Illinois municipalities:

Benton $3,544.55, Broughton $34.11, Cairo $4,610.93, Carbondale $5,888.73, Carmi $4,206.13, Cave-in-Rock $167.93, Centralia $9,907.31; Du Quoin $2,939.72, Elizabethtown $1,867.77, Equality $228.49, Herrin $5,154.03, Johnston City $933.15, Marion $5,534.07, McLeansboro $2,040.08;

Rosiclare $490.21, Shawneetown $671.95, Thompsonville $113.57, Mt. Vernon $9,980.64, Murphysboro $4,852.46, Norris City $607.68;

Ridgway $769.45, Vienna $1,066.91, West Frankfort $4,447.57.

Judge Orders Ballot Count

With parties agreed to the facts in the case, Circuit Judge C. Ross Reynolds of Vienna this morning directed the Saline county canvassing board to summon the judges and clerks of Carrier Mills Precinct 1 to the court house to count uncounted ballots cast Nov. 6.

There were no arguments presented to the court, no evidence presented. Only action was confession to the petition filed asking the circuit court for a writ of mandamus to have the ballots counted.

The court directed the canvassing board to certify the canvass following the recount in Carrier Mills 1.

After the Nov. 6 election it became apparent that more than 100 ballots cast in No. 1 were not counted and the judges and clerks testified to this fact before the canvassing board. The canvassing board, seeking to learn whether or not it had the authority to open the ballots for a count, did not certify the canvass so that the matter could be taken before the circuit court.

Most interested parties in the case are James R. Burroughs and Quentin Bowers. Without the count of the 100 or more ballots—estimated to be around 129—Burroughs had a margin over Bowers of 115 votes for circuit clerk.

Court Martial Sentences Former Marine Corporal to Year at Hard Labor

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—A general court martial today sentenced former Marine drill instructor Frederick A. Renton to a year at hard labor and a bad conduct discharge for using a naked bayonet to force recruits to perform physical feats.

The court announced the sentence after deliberating a verdict of guilty handed down Thursday or four of 16 counts against 20-year-old Renton of New York City.

The verdict and punishment are subject to review by higher military authority.

The 10-member court also ordered Renton reduced from private first class to private, and to forfeit all pay and allowances during the period of confinement.

The dark-haired young Marine stood stiffly at attention with his attorney as the sentence was read. After the sentence, he was hustled into a nearby room with his mother, who attended the trial. He refused to talk to a reporter.

Renton was the fourth non-com in this huge Marine "boot camp" to be found guilty of maltreatment since the celebrated McKeon case last summer.

By United Press

A heavy snowstorm swirled into the upper reaches of the Midwest today after howling across the Northern Plains, coating roads with packed ice and snow and causing at least three traffic deaths.

The dead were motorists who were unable to control their skidding autos on the glazed highways.

Meanwhile, the coldest weather of the season pushed eastward, causing thermometers to nose-dive through Ohio in the north and Mississippi in the south.

All of the central portion of the nation except the Northwest was gripped by the cold snap.

Wide Snow Belt

Heavy snow spread a white blanket from eastern Montana through western Upper Michigan. Snow depths generally varied from six to eight inches in most storm-hit sections, but one of the heaviest snowfalls was at Duluth, Minn., where 12 inches fell.

Considerable damage was caused in the Chicago area Thursday night and early today by strong winds, with gusts reaching 60 miles per hour.

Body of Mrs. John L. Abney to Be Taken to Cairo for Funeral

The body of Mrs. John L. Abney, wife of the proprietor of Abby's Barbecue who died yesterday at 10:15 a. m. at the Lightner hospital, will be taken Saturday morning to Cairo where they formerly lived.

The body will lie in state at the Karcher funeral home there at which place the funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. Burial will be in the Thistlewood cemetery in Mounds.

Gibbons funeral service is in charge.

New Round of War Threatened By Stalemate

UN Secretary
General Inspects
First Police Units

LONDON (UP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold arrived today in Egypt for talks with President Gamal Abdel Nasser on the worsening diplomatic stalemate that threatens another round of the Mideast war.

Hammarskjold flew to the Abu Suweir air field near Ismailia in the Suez Canal zone with 50 Colombian reinforcements for the first contingent of the U. N. police force. Another flight of 50 Norwegians boosted to 192 the number of police on hand.

The secretary general inspected the first police units and then continued on to Cairo. It was understood he planned to send for 24 signalmen immediately to speed up communications in the Middle East.

"I congratulate you for being members of a force unique of its kind," Hammarskjold told the UNEF soldiers. "Men from all over the world have offered their services for the achievement of the principles upon which the United Nations was founded. I am confident that the example you are giving will achieve world peace and security."

Burns in New York

Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, head of the new U. N. police force, arrived in New York almost at the same time as Hammarskjold arrived in the Middle East. Burns was conferring with U. N. delegations in hopes of pinning down the as yet uncertain duties of his police force.

Burns and Hammarskjold had conferred in Italy.

Hammarskjold was faced with the difficulty of reconciling the Egyptian demand for immediate withdrawal of Anglo-French troops and the equally firm insistence of the allies that they stay until peace returns.

Both sides appeared to be hardening their positions.

A Cairo dispatch said Egypt was still demanding the immediate withdrawal of Anglo-French troops and would refuse to discuss any other phase of the Mideast crisis until they leave the Suez area.

Britain, France Determined

Britain and France were reported equally determined that their troops remain until some sort of permanent settlement is reached and the future of the Suez Canal seems assured.

Egypt was reported as seeing the U. N. emergency force as only a means of getting the Anglo-French and Israeli troops out of Egypt. A highly placed source said if Nasser loses confidence in the U. N. "no alternatives can be ruled out—including the bringing in of Soviet volunteers."

The urgency of the Middle East situation was given another reminder Thursday night when Soviet Prime Minister Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin said Great Britain, France and Israel should pay compensation to Egypt for damages caused by their invasions.

He made no mention of previous Soviet threats to send in "volunteers" but he was reported to have warned Israel that its actions threatened the existence of the state—a warning he made in an earlier note.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The centurion answered and said, Lord I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof.
—Matthew 8:8.
Love does not ask if we are worthy.

Our Leadership Is Still Firm

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
Now that the election is over, it may be possible to discuss free of partisanship the question of our leadership in the West.

It has been said that the Anglo-French move against Egypt proved that these two allies were no longer following American leadership, and that consequently that leadership had failed.

Beyond question they did not follow us, for we were firmly set against the use of force in the Middle East. But is this fact automatic proof of failure on our part?

There are some who seem willing to say that every time there is a divergence between the United States and any of its allies, it demonstrates the collapse of our leadership.

Yet to pursue this reasoning is to say that there never can be honest differences between friendly nations without failure here at home.

We are indeed often wrong, but so are our allies. And sometimes neither side may be wrong when viewed in any sensible light, but simply acting according to its measure of its own national interests.

The British and French obviously rate the Suez Canal vital to their economies. Though important to us, it is not that crucial.

Our chief European allies also believe that Egyptian President Nasser cannot long be tolerated in office, lest he inflame the whole Arab world against the West. We also dislike Nasser heartily, but we have felt he could better be brought down by slow economic strangulation.

When the British and French were finally convinced we would not support even drastic economic sanctions against him, they decided to strike with force.

These differences underlie the present Western split. But it is hard to see how they prove we have failed utterly. We stood for a nonviolent solution, and won thereby the support of most members of the United Nations. We urged caution, for fear a wider conflagration would follow use of force.

The fact that Russia happened to be among those opposing the allied move should not be magnified. If the Kremlin suddenly came out against Nasser, we could not take an opposite tack just to avoid being found in Russian company.

We must stand for what we believe is right. Having done so, we cannot wisely be diverted from that course because otherwise unfriendly nations — for reasons of their own — choose to line up on the same side.

The strength and quality of a nation's leadership in the world must be judged in the large frame of time, in a balancing of all factors. Day-to-day differences among allies, even those as big as the present ones, are not the decisive measure.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

Drew Pearson Says: Eisenhower Would Have Used A-Bomb On Near East Back in 1950; Senator-Elect Lausche
Claims Fritchey "Invented" Him; Lack of Cash Helped Democrats Lose.

WASHINGTON — Eisenhower's handling of the Near East crisis recalls a significant private remark he made on Dec. 31, 1950, the last day he served as President of Columbia University.

Sen. James Duff of Pennsylvania, the late Russell Davenport of Life magazine; Russell Forgan, the stockbroker; and John Bennett,
New York Republican, were gathered in his office. Eisenhower had just been appointed by Truman to command the newly formed NATO military setup in Paris. He told his friends:

"The western world, for survival, will have to maintain shipping lanes to countries with critical materials, especially oil and manganese. We have not handled the Arab situation too intelligently, and if the Kremlin should move into the oil fields of Saudi Arabia and if the decision were mine, to make, I would use the atomic bomb to destroy those oil fields."

Eisenhower picked up a steel paperweight from his desk. "Do you gentlemen realize," he said,
"that we cannot make one pound of steel without manganese? And one of the chief suppliers of man-gane is India."

High officials who have conferred at the White House in the last ten days say that Ike today does not believe in using the same degree of force to protect the Suez canal. Certainly he would not use the A-bomb. Last week he sent strong messages to Prime Minister Eden and Premier Mollet of France, urging that they accept a cease-fire in order to prevent any possible threat of Russian aggression.

HE "INVENTED" LAUSCHE

Adlai Stevenson was visiting in Ohio with Gov. Frank Lausche, now senator-elect from Ohio. With him was his press secretary Clayton Fritchey, former ace reporter for the Cleveland Press.

"Do you know Clayton Fritchey?" Stevenson asked Lausche.

"Know him. He invented me!"

What Lausche referred to was the fact that, when mayor of Cleveland, he couldn't make up his mind whether to run for governor of Ohio or not. Never before had a Catholic been elected to that high office. Fritchey told Lausche to run, predicted he would make it.
He gave Lausche encouragement not only to run, but later to become the first man in history to be five times governor of Ohio.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Some years ago, after Harry Truman tagged me with certain well-known initials, someone addressed a letter to me as follows: "G-O-B."
With unerring accuracy the postman brought it to me in Washington. After I told about this in the Saturday Evening Post this week,
I received a letter from Cecil F.
Whitehead, Anderson, Ind. He addressed the envelope with no name — only a picture of me clipped from the Saturday Evening Post.
Again the postman with unerring accuracy delivered the letter to my front door. . . . One man who had much to do with switching the 20-year Democratic trend in West Virginia was Bradley Nash, former assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force and GOP candidate for Congress in West Virginia. Knowing that the United Mine Workers' vote was all-important, Nash went to John L. Lewis' political adviser,

Bob Howe, got his permission to talk to district mine leaders in West Virginia. He buttonholed most of them, found them receptive to Republicans, not too receptive politically to John L. Lewis. . . .
Happy Revercomb, new GOP senator-elect from West Virginia, may do an Arthur Vandenberg. Revercomb was so isolationist and so anti-some racial groups in 1948 that candidate Tom Dewey refused to go to West Virginia. Friends say that he's now seeing the light of day and, like the late Senator Vandenberg, may become something of a liberal. . . . Biggest debt owed by the Democrats is their million-dollar deficit is to the telephone company and the airlines. . . . Adlai Stevenson considers himself responsible for helping pay it. He will make speeches at Democratic dinners all over the country. . . .
Staff members of the Democratic National committee are resigning wholesale. No money to pay salaries. . . . Mrs. Joe Clark, wife of the new senator-elect from Pennsylvania, is being billed in Washington as the most tactful of all Senate wives. Interviewed in Philadelphia about her husband's terrific victory, Mrs. Clark was asked,
"Are you thrilled with the election?" She replied, "You can assume so."

H-BOMB BOOMERANG

Here is an unreported incident in the recent election campaign which illustrates one reason the Democrats lost: Dissension and lack of money.

It is no secret that many Democrats disagreed with Adlai Stevenson about the wisdom of his political strategy in proposing the end of H-bomb tests. They felt that, while he was right scientifically,
he was wrong politically. There wasn't enough time to get the complicated question on the H-bomb across to the American public.
However, when Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee made a speech in Kentucky on the H-bomb, he was completely understandable and extremely effective.

"I know what I'm talking about,"
said Gore. "I am a member of the Atomic Energy committee that has all of the secrets. I know more about it than the President because I have taken the time to study the facts and he hasn't. I can tell you that Strontium 90 can be and has been fatal. I can tell you that many of the scientists of the United States are worried about the future of the American people if these tests continue."

Gore was so effective that Sen.
Earle Clements telephoned Stevenson's campaign manager, James Finnegan, urging that a nation-wide telecast be arranged for Senators Gore, Anderson of New Mexico,
Jackson of Washington, and Pastore of Rhode Island—all Democratic members of the Atomic Energy committee. Clements argued that, with their insight on hydrogen-bomb information, a joint broadcast by this array of senators would carry terrific weight with the nation.

"O.K., if you can raise $100,000," replied Finnegan.

The Democrats were so broke they couldn't raise the money.

REVIVAL MEETING IN PROGRESS

A revival meeting is in progress at the Church of God of Prophecy on the corner of Homer and Vine streets.

Services begin at 7:30 each evening. Rev. Marvin Oiler of Corinth is the evangelist.

The pastor, Goldie Beers, extends an invitation to the public to attend.

SIU Trustees to Ask Funds for Branch School

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP) — The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees agreed today to ask the Illinois Legislature for an additional $863,000 for stepped-up educational offerings in the Madison-St. Clair county area.

The amount will be included in the university's budget request to the Legislature for the 1957-58 biennium. Of the amount, $298,000 would be for increasing the educational offerings in the two-county area, $300,000 for site acquisition, and $265,000 for architectural and engineering fees.

The funds would enable the university to go ahead with previous plans—prompted by the demands of residents in the area—to expand facilities similar to the residence center which has been operating at Belleville since 1949.

With the requested funds, the university could start basic courses at the freshman and sophomore level, the trustees said.

Trustees estimated that 18,000 youth in the two-county area will be ready for college by 1970.

Newest Buick Yet

We've introduced a lot of new Buicks to the local scene—but never before one as new as this.

Inside and outside, top to toe, end to end—this is the newest Buick yet.

And it's not just new for newness itself—but new in ways that make driving more comfortable, safer and more fun.

You'll see what we mean when you study these gorgeous new Buicks close up.

They're inches lower and stunningly styled from stem to stern—yet each is wondrously roomy inside.

They bring a wide-eyed new visibility of the road ahead with a rakish windshield that adds hundreds more square inches of glass area.

They're new in ride, with a new contour frame chassis that "nests" your going—giving new roadability with a lower center of gravity—yet road clearance is unchanged.

They're new in handling with a new Buick-developed ball-joint suspension that makes steering and cornering easier while it levelizes braking.

But above and beyond all else—these 1957
Buicks are brand new in performance:

—with a V8 engine that's new from the crank-shaft up, to give you the highest power and compression in all Buick annals.

—with an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that brings you such instant response, such smoothness, such a full range of fluid motion in "Drive" that the need for "Low" is all but eliminated.

All this covers only the big advances in the 1957 Buick.

There are other wonderful new things—the new safety instrument panel—the new color-mate interiors—the new counterbalanced brake pedals—well over a hundred and fifty new features in all.

As your Buick dealer, we're ready to show you these newest Buicks yet—and how easy you'll find it to call one your own. Stop in and see us this week.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Re-Elect Steffey IAA President

CHICAGO (AP)—The Illinois Agricultural Assn. has installed William J. Kuhfuss, 44, Mackinaw, as its new vice president.

By a narrow margin, Kuhfuss defeated Edwin Gumm, Galesburg, Thursday for the vacancy caused by the death of Charles J. Elliott, 67, Streator. Elliott died of a heart attack Tuesday.

Delegates, voting according to their local membership, gave Kuhfuss 85,345 votes to 81,005 for Gumm.

Kuhfuss is a livestock and grain farmer in Tazewell county. He is a graduate of Illinois State Normal University, where he was an outstanding athlete.

Winding up four days of sessions at their 42nd annual meeting, the IAA delegates voted unanimously to re-elect Otto Steffey as president of the IAA, the nation's largest farm bureau organization.

Two new directors were chosen—R. H. Lanterman, Chatham, and William Sauer, Murphysboro. Directors re-elected were Forrest Robbins, Amboy; Earle Johnson, Huntley; L. S. Davison, Minonk; F. L. Simpson, Farmer City; Clarence McCauley, Mount Vernon, and Gumm.

Delegates approved policy statements recommended by the Resolutions committee with little or no opposition. The key resolution urged steps designed to strengthen the soil bank program.

Social and Personal Items

Mrs. Sam Cape Hostess To Michael Hillgas Chapter

The Michael Hillgas chapter of the D. A. R. met at the home of Mrs. Sam Cape Monday, Nov. 12, with Mrs. Thomas Ozment, Mrs. Hal Burnett and Mrs. George Robertson as assistant hostesses.

Fourteen members were present. Mrs. Harley Shepherd, regent, opened the meeting with the D. A. R. ritual followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. Plans were discussed concerning a new state directory which will contain approximately 10,000 proven lines from the State of Illinois.

After the business meeting Mrs. Pat Sullivan, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Alvina Sheziak from the Harrisburg Township high school who gave a most interesting and informative talk on the "Signers of the Declaration of Independence."

The hostesses served pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee at the close of the meeting.

The December meeting will be held Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Victor Humm at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. L. L. Pankey, Mrs. Royce Cline and Mrs. Pat Sullivan will be assistant hostesses.

Miss Phyllis Jane Robson To Wed in Early Spring

The engagement of Miss Phyllis Jane Robson to Alfred Koltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Koltz of Harvard, is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robson, also of Harvard, formerly of Harrisburg.

Miss Robson was graduated from Harrisburg Township high school in the class of 1953 and is a recent graduate nurse of the Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Chicago. She is now employed in the McHenry County Memorial hospital in Woodstock, Ill. Mr. Koltz was graduated from the Harvard Community unit high school in the class of 1950 and has recently been separated from the United States Navy. He is an electrician employed in Harvard.

Miss Robson and her fiancé are planning an early spring wedding in Harvard.

Busy Women's Bible Class Holds Social

The Busy Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church held its monthly social in Wesley Center Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 7 p. m. with 29 members present.

The meeting opened with the song, "Stand up for Jesus," after which Mrs. Robert Melven led in prayer.

After the secretary and treasurer's report a letter from Mrs. Mabel Jones, a former Missionary to India, was read. This Sunday school class has supported a boy in school in India for a number of years.

They also voted to send clothing and blankets to destitute people in Korea.

A beautiful devotion was given by Mrs. H. E. Rawlins on "Peace and Thanksgiving."

Following a short discussion refreshments of pumpkin pie, whipped cream and coffee were served by the social committee.

Julie Ann Steinsultz Celebrates 10th Birthday

Julie Ann Steinsultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Steinsultz, was honored with a party and a six o'clock dinner Nov. 13 at her home.

Julie received many lovely gifts. After dinner birthday cake and ice cream were served. Door and game prizes were won by Karen Sue Winkelman, Rhonda Marks and Judy Winkelman.

Those attending were Linda Gibson, Rhonda Marks, Judy Winkelman, Karen Sue Winkelman, Charbel Price, Cynthia Price, Karen Ann Kimberlin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Price and Mrs. G. A. Baker.

Mrs. Wilma Burrows spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Edwards, Galatia RFD 3, before leaving for France to join her husband, S/Sgt. Wendell Burrows, stationed at Druex France Air Base.

Government economists predict the registration of motor vehicles in the United States will go from the present 61 million to 81 million by 1965.

First Methodist WSCS Has Program on UN

The general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met Wednesday at 2 p. m. at Wesley Center.

Meeting opened with silent prayer after which the president, Mrs. L. B. Kimmel, read the first Thanksgiving proclamation written on the fourth Thursday of November, 1623.

Mrs. Morris Skaggs, general chairman of the Christmas bazaar, read the names of all the chairmen of the different booths to take part in the bazaar Dec. 7 at Wesley Center and appealed for more help from those who were not listed.

Committee chairmen are as follows: apron, Mrs. Dewey Williams, Mrs. Nim Penrod and Mrs. H. E. Jones; arts and crafts, Mrs. Morris Skaggs, chairman, Mrs. Eli Lasersohn and Mrs. Tom Davenport, co-chairmen; food, Mrs. James Gasaway, Mrs. Ed Wing and Mrs. H. O. Buell; candy, Mrs. C. E. Seten Jr., Mrs. Hugh Walker and Mrs. Harley Shepherd; decorators, Mrs. Bloddy Cummins, Mrs. Frank Parker Sr. and Mrs. J. A. Bottomley;

Mother Thompson unit booth, Mrs. Shirley Wolfe and Mrs. Otis Hickey; white elephant, Mrs. Tom Wilkinson, Mrs. H. N. Finney, Mrs. F. N. Russell, Mrs. Effie Davis; tickets and advertising, Mrs. John Schork and Mrs. Charles D. Taylor; decorating, Mrs. Dean Hill and Mrs. V. V. Brown; morning coffee, Mrs. Louie Davenport, Mrs. Mary Ann Cummins and Mrs. Don Williams;

Pastries, Mrs. E. M. Travelstead, Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Mrs. B. G. Funkhouser, Mrs. John R. Jackson, Mrs. B. E. Montgomery, Mrs. L. L. Parker and Mrs. D. A. Lehman.

After the business session Mrs. B. W. Rude was chairman for the afternoon program, presenting Mrs. J. A. Bottomley who gave a spirited devotion on "The United Nations, a Good Trustee." Mrs. Ray Durham followed the theme in presenting the lesson entitled "The United Nations Trusteeship Council" and told of the work it has been doing in Asia and Africa.

Mrs. Gidcomb arranged an appropriate worship center.

When the meeting was adjourned the Martha circle served coffee and cookies.

Chuck Wagon Dinner November 20 by First Methodist Kupples Klass

Yes, Podner, the Kupples Klass of the First Methodist church "air a goin'" to have another Chuck Wagon dinner, and the date is Tuesday Nov. 20. No fancy trimmings, but much "atmosphere" at Wesley Center where the old cow hands and their wimmin are herding for this here shindig.

They are making it into a corral, and after the dinner there will be something that would be called a "hoe-down" if it were anywhere but a church. "Pecos Pete" (John Towle), "Scarface Mike" (B. E. Montgomery), "Deadeye Dick" (O. L. Turner), and "Montana Annie" (Mary Jeanette Parker), air a goin' to play and the "Dry Gulch Singers" with accompaniment by "Nevada Rose" Norman, air a goin' to sing.

The food will be typical western fare—barbecued beef, baked ham, rodeo steak, baked beans, western potatoes, pinto beans, mixed greens, cornbread, slaw, and (for city slickers) molded salad.

If it wasn't enough to hear the foregoing the Kupples Klass stands ready and willing at the drop of a sombrero to make some harmony. In the singing section are Fred Wunderlich, John Schork, Pearl Parkhurst, Ora Russler, Mary Johnson, Jimmy Gasaway, Edith Hill, Eva Travis, Mary Biggers and Paul Hood.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of John McClosky who left us two years ago Nov. 16, 1954:
Little we knew with dawn that morn,
The sorrow it would bring.
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
We little thought the end was near.

If all the world were ours to give,
We would give it, yes and more;
To see your smiling face again,
Come shining through the door.
Sometimes it is hard to understand Why some things have to be,
But in His wisdom God had planned

Beyond our power to see.
God gave us strength to bear it,
And courage to meet the blow,
But what it meant to lose you,
This world will never know.
The beautiful things you did for us,
Live in our hearts each day,
And keep you near and dear to us,
Though you have passed away.
Sadly missed by father, mother, brothers and sisters. 119-1

Day of the Outlaw

By Lee Wells

Copyright 1955, by Lee Wells. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Jack Bruhn's outlaw pack, which is on the run after a bank robbery, has taken over the town of Bitter, Wyo. A cowboy has been wounded, two men beaten up, and Tommy Rikes, the Wyoming saloon bartender, killed. Dr. Langer, the only physician in town, is being forced to take care of Shorty Ratner, one of the outlaws who was wounded. Dan Murdock, foreman of the Star ranch, narrowly escapes death when he attacked Pace Odium, the outlaw who murdered Tommy.

IX

"He hit me!" Pace said in a choked voice. Bruhn slowly straightened, nodded, his eyes wary and the gun steady.

"Sure, Pace. He won't do it again. Besides, you killed his friend." His voice was soothing as though he carefully explained something to a child. "You shouldn't have done it, Pace. I've told you time and again you're too quick with a gun."

Dan made one or two more ineffectual attempts to free himself and then gave up.

Bruhn momentarily turned his head to look at Dan. "You getting some sense?"

Dan took a deep breath but could not keep the angry quiver out of his voice. "Why'd he have to do that?"

Bruhn looked at Pace. "I don't know why. I reckon Pace don't either." His voice tightened. "How about it, Pace?"

"I'll kill him," Pace snapped. "Not until I tell you, Pace." Bruhn said like a parent giving an order. "If you do, you won't live a minute afterward."

Pace jerked as though he had been slapped. He shot Dan a venomous glance.

"All right, Jack," he said evenly. "If you say so."

Doc Langer spoke from the end of the bar. "He's dead . . . before he hit the floor."

Pace's head jerked around. "Of course," he said with a touch of pride. "I always place a slug where I intend to."

Ava suddenly broke the paralysis that had held her. Her eyes focused on Pace, the impact of his deed striking her full force. Her neck corded and suddenly she leaped for him.

Pace involuntarily stepped back. Tex wheeled, lunged toward Ava and his arms circled her. She tried to break loose and almost succeeded. Her hair came loose and streamed down her back and she clawed toward Pace. Tex held her, slowly forcing down her arms, placing his weight against her, as swiftly as she had moved, she collapsed, sobbing shaking her. Tex held her close and looked over her shoulder to Bruhn, signaled with his eyes toward the body on the floor.

Claggett, moving like a man in a bad dream, walked to the end of the bar and looked dully at Dan. Doc Langer arose and brushed the sawdust from his knees. He looked at Tex, holding Ava, her head buried in his chest.

"Get her a drink, a good strong one. She needs it." His glance fell on Bruhn's broad face and hard jaw. He took a deep breath. "Haven't you done enough damage? Why don't you go away and leave us alone? We haven't done you any harm."

Bruhn's deep chest lifted and a shadow passed over his eyes, was gone. He disregarded the doctor and glared at Dan.

"Get moving, friend. Get him out of sight."

Dan slowly turned and walked to the bar. He had never known hatred like this before. It was a fire in his chest, a talon in his brain. He saw Pace Odium thru a red haze and the sight of the rest of them was a goad that made him fight to control himself. He dimly heard Tex as he bent to help pick up Tommy and carry him behind the bar.

"Denver, bring a slug for the lady. Where does she live?"

Hal Crane spoke, voice muffled.

"Take the street between the smithy and the store. There's a little street off of it just before you reach the Spade Road. Her house is the last on the right."

"I'll take her home," Tex said. Dan straightened as Denver brought a whisky glass to Tex.

Tex took the whisky glass from Denver and handed it to her. He spoke insistently, and Ava took the glass and drank, her eyes wide on the man's face. The whisky choked her and her face convulsed as she dropped the glass. Tex instantly had his arm around her and turned her toward the door. "I'm taking her home."

The door burst open. The gun again blurred up from the holster and lined on the two men who plunged into the room. A streak of fear cut through Dan when he recognized Phil Preston and Larry Teter. They came to an abrupt halt, staring at the gun, then wondering around the room.

Larry Teter was at one time a lean and powerful man. Now his muscles had slackened and a once flat stomach had slowly taken on fat so that he puffed after the short run to the bar. His face was square, freckled, his bristling hair a fiery red, his eyes a mild blue with little laugh crinkles at the corner. He stood now with his jaw hanging.

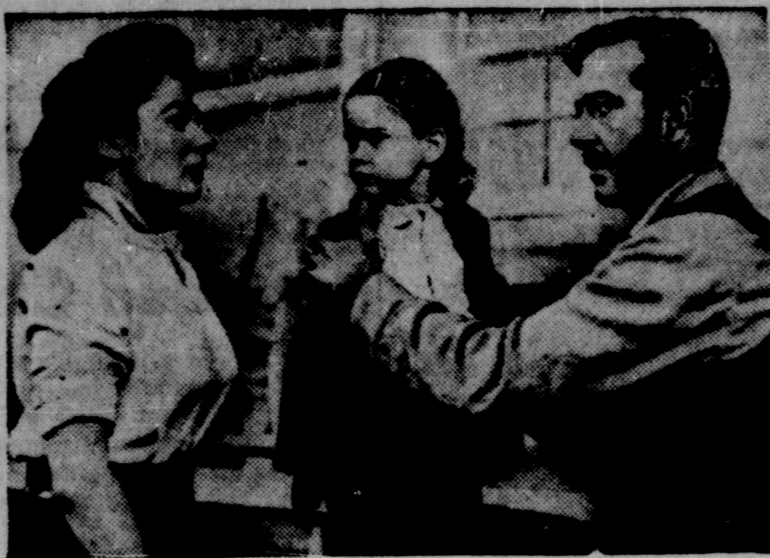

Phil Preston sensed the situation far more quickly than Larry. He still did not understand, but the leveled gun, the hard-featured strangers who mingled with his friends, the strained attitude of Dan, Hal Crane and Doc Langer told him something of the story before he saw Lewis, pale and wan with bandaged shoulder, and Shorty Ratner's still form stretched out on the table. His face went pale but he kept his voice even.

"We heard shots. What's this all about?"

HISTORY STUDENTS TOUR MENARD PENITENTIARY

American History students of the Eldorado Township high school made an all-day tour of the Menard penitentiary and other points of interest in the area Wednesday.

In addition to touring the state penal institution near Chester, the ETHS students also visited Fort Kaskaskia State Park.

The group, travelling in two buses and accompanied by J. Ward Barnes and Mrs. Mary O'Brien of the ETHS faculty, ate the noon meal at the Chester high school cafeteria.

Trips of a historical nature are made each year by the ETHS American History students.

The annual Board of Education-Faculty banquet of the ETHS will be held this evening in the school cafeteria.

Tuesday, Nov. 20, all ETHS football players will be guests of the Eldorado Lions and Rotary clubs at the annual football banquet, held in the ETHS cafeteria.

At the banquet letters will be presented and other awards announced.

25 Killed in Airliner Crash

MANAGUA, Nicaragua — Rescue crews set out today for the rough mountain country 35 miles northwest of here where 25 persons were killed when their airliner crashed in flames.

The Daily Register, Harrisburg, Illinois
Friday, November 16, 1956
Page Five

One passenger lived for several hours after the crash Thursday. He was picked up near the wreckage of the Guest Airlines four-engine transport by an American pilot of a crop-spraying plane. Flown to a hospital in Managua, he died Thursday night.

The plane was carrying 26 passengers and a crew of five from Panama to Mexico City via Guatemala. They included eight women and two infants. Only one American was aboard.

Thanksgiving...

Dear Lord, We have so much to thank Thee for! Spring's bright promise gloriously fulfilled In plenteous harvests. Peace throughout our land, And all the joys of life that help to gild The passing days—home, work, love, laughter, friends. But most of all we bless Thee, Lord, for those The right to walk in safety, speak our minds. And, without fear, to worship as we please. God keep us strong and show us how to share These blessings with our brothers everywhere!

Sentence for Slaying Girl, 8

CARTHAGE, Ill. (U. P.) — The confessed slayer of an eight-year-old Canton, Ill., girl was sentenced to death in the electric chair Thursday after he lost a motion picture for a new trial.

Lloyd Miller, 30, turned in tears when Judge William Barden turned down his plea and set death execution date for Jan. 18.

Miller was convicted of killing little Janice May.

Miller's request for permission to file an appeal before the state Supreme Court as a pauper also was rejected by Judge Barden. He said the appeal must be filed directly before the Supreme Court.

Janice's body was found last Nov. 26 beneath an old mine car in a deserted railroad yard near her home at Canton. She had been sexually molested.

Recreation Programs on Increase for Mentally Retarded Children in U. S.

Why should a mentally retarded child whose major defect is that he cannot read and write, add and subtract and think in abstract terms as well as his peers, be denied the pleasures and advantages of group recreation?

Increasingly, that question has been asked by parents of retarded children. It has been asked in Saline county. In years past, the retarded child was shunned and hidden away. Companionship and some of the simple pleasures that an American heritage promises all children were not for him. His loneliness was desperately tragic. And because he was denied these simple pleasures—teen-age dancing, boy or girl scouting and camping, swimming and sports—he was further denied the opportunity to develop to his greatest possible capacity.

Three Percent Affected

Mental retardation in varying degrees affects an estimated three percent of the population. Of every hundred children, three are destined to be mentally retarded. It is a condition—not a disease. And while there is no known cure, there have been great strides in recent years to help children who formerly would have been thought hopelessly mentally retarded to develop far beyond what at first seemed their fullest capacity.

Special nursery schools with trained teachers have been developed in many parts of the United States, then special classes both in and out of the public schools system have helped the mentally retarded, and sheltered workshops where adolescents and young adults could learn simple work to help make them self-supporting have sprung up in hundreds of communities. Usually these facilities have been sponsored by a unit of the National Association for Retarded Children of which there are over 400. The National Association for Retarded Children is primarily made up of parents of retarded as are its member units.

Programs in Operation

Parents of the retarded, psychologists, teachers, pediatricians and others all began to realize that not only specialized training was needed, but specialized facilities for leisure time.

Ten years ago there were practically no community recreation facilities for the retarded either privately or publicly supported. Today, surveys which cannot be considered complete and represent on-

The scriptural promise that Jesus Christ visited and ministered to the inhabitants of ancient America is explored in an impressive and colorful motion picture, "Other Sheep," which will be presented Sunday night Nov. 18, 7:30 p. m., by the congregation of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, at 10 East O'Gara. The public is invited to the showing.

Among the features of the film are breath-taking scenes photographed in southern Mexico, of immense buildings of religious and cultural significance, which archaeologists date back to the beginning of the Christian era.

Russell Ellis, Ridgeway, is pastor of the local congregation.

Marriage to Boss Reveals Bride's Theft

RAHWAY, N. J. (U. P.) — The marriage of a comely office worker to her boss disclosed that she had embezzled $140,000 from his electronics firm before they were married.

About $50,000 of the money allegedly went to purchase the home in which they live.

Police said the bride, Mrs. Virginia Miller, 35, was arrested Thursday night and admitted taking the money over a three-year period while she was manager of the Plainfield office of Miller-Fugle Laboratories Inc.

Authorities said Mrs. Miller's marriage to her boss led to discovery of the embezzlement. Company rules forced Mrs. Miller to quit her position. A routine audit by an accountant followed and uncovered alleged mishandling of the payroll for the last three years.

Her husband, Conrad Miller, 38, is secretary-treasurer of the company which he and company President Frank L. Fugle founded nine years ago.

When informed by the auditor that $140,000 of payroll funds was missing, Miller telephoned his wife. Police said she admitted taking the funds to purchase the $50,000 home. She also admitted buying a boat for one brother-in-law, an automobile for another and giving her parents an undetermined amount of cash.

At her arraignment Mrs. Miller turned to her husband and sobbed: "I'm sorry I hurt you."

Top Legislative Items Predicted by Lt. Gov. Chapman

SPRINGFIELD (U. P.) — Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman said judicial reform, annual legislative sessions and a state speed law will be top items in Gov. William G. Stratton's 1957 legislative program.

Chapman outlined the legislative prospects Thursday at a meeting of 200 members of the Federation of Illinois Women's Republican Clubs here.

Chapman also predicted a record breaking highway program and the possibility of a general pay raise for state employees.

Action on a Korean veterans bonus will have to await action by a special commission studying the matter, he said.

The Republican women elected Mrs. Conrad F. Becker, Red Bud, as president to succeed Mrs. Irl Marshall, also of Red Bud.

Other new officers include Mrs. Newell S. Boardman, Hinsdale, first vice president; Mrs. Beard McCreight, Aleo, second vice president, and Mrs. Carlyle H. Kusel, La Grange, recording secretary.

Fielding Hits U. S. Apathy in Mid-East

Britain and France restrained from reoccupying it. Captain Fielding stated his belief that it would have been better if America would have remained out of the crisis and allowed Britain and France to retake the canal at that time instead of letting it become the explosive situation it became later.

Quick action would have been better then, the speaker said.

He stated his belief the West must show strength and use power policies when necessary as moral persuasion is unrealistic.

Captain Fielding stated he believes the fighting will be over soon but the long term effects will revive colonialism charges against the West and will give Russia a big assist in winning over the minds of the people in the Middle East and Far East.

The Hungarian situation and ruthless Soviet action there will have a restraining influence on Arab and other nations, Captain Fielding stated.

Must Sell Democracy

The speaker described the communist "selling" methods in backward nations to convert the minds of the hungry peoples by promising utopia overnight. People who accept the communist ideology find their freedom is gone before they can do anything about it, he said.

The West must sell democracy, and America, as the leading nation opposing communism, must live and sell freedom in combatting the communist agents in presently free countries, the speaker said.

Sebe Kelly, president of the Diner club, was in charge of the meeting. The invocation was given by the Rev. William Burroughs, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Harrisburg, and dismissal prayer was by the Rev. W. E. Hanagan, pastor of St. Mary's church in Eldorado.

The speaker was introduced by M. E. Haring of Eldorado.

County Board Votes To Hike Garrison Bond

had no recollection of approving the bonds and most certainly remembered no figures in them. However, it was stated by one member he believed the two were approved without the amounts being mentioned.

Audit Report Soon

Another motion passed asked for an additional bond of $25,000 for the county clerk because of his handling of the municipal retirement funds in Saline county.

Reports were that the Belleville auditing firm, Rice and Bedel, which has been checking records since the indictment on embezzlement charges of County Clerk Garrison, was winding up its work and would make a report to the grand jury soon. Garrison has been named in nine indictments and is free after supplying bail totalling $18,000. He has not been arraigned on these indictments.

Other action yesterday included: Transferring of funds from accounts with money available to nearly-depleted accounts as the fiscal year nears its end, which is Dec. 3.

Approval of the grand lists as turned in by the supervisors.

The hearing of a report by Raymond Field regarding the trip made by him, C. L. Ozment and Vernon Smith, also board members, to Mt. Vernon Nov. 9 to the meeting of the Southern Zone of County Supervisors and Commissioners. Mr. Field is vice chairman of the zone.

Homer Crayne Rites At Eldorado Saturday

Funeral services for Homer Crayne, Equality resident who died at his home late Wednesday afternoon, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Ridgeway Baptist church. Rev. A. L. Cox will officiate and burial will be in the Jackson cemetery near Ridgeway.

The body will be taken this afternoon from the A. K. Moore funeral home to the family residence to lie in state.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at Salem church. Rev. Luther Howard and Mrs. Earl Hunt Jr. will officiate. The body was taken this morning from the Turner funeral home in Norris City to the residence to lie in state.

Justice Dep't Authorizes Full Scale Probe of Lobbying Fee

SPRINGFIELD (U. P.) — The U. S. attorney's office announced today the Justice Department has authorized it to make a full-scale grand jury investigation of a lobbying fee paid by a Missouri utility company to a lawyer friend of convicted State Auditor Orville E. Hodge.

U. S. Atty. John B. Stoddard's office said he would convene a federal grand jury Nov. 27 to present the first evidence in the investigation of possible violations of the public utility holding act.

The $35,000 lobbying fee was reported paid by Union Electric Co., St. Louis, to Chicago attorney J. Roy Browning.

An entry for the same amount was entered in the "brown envelope" ledger which was kept of Hodge's illegal transactions.

Browning said he turned over a check from Union Electric for $7,500 to Hodge. He said he never saw the balance of the reported $35,000 fee.

The utility said it hired Browning to lobby for a bill, which was passed, and which allowed the company to escape Illinois franchise fees by serving its Illinois customers through its Missouri parent company.

The utility said Hodge, now in prison, was only an intermediary in the hiring of Browning.

Navy to Send New Task Force Into Atlantic

WASHINGTON (U. P.) — The Navy said today it will send another powerful task force into the Atlantic on Monday. It will be headed by the world's largest aircraft carrier, the U. S. S. Saratoga.

The latest Navy "training operation" was announced at the same time it was disclosed the nation's long-range bomber force apparently is engaging in stepped-up exercises within the United States.

The Air Force described the Strategic Air Command activity as "routine training" not necessarily linked with the Middle East crisis but not entirely divorced from it either.

The Navy here and the Atlantic Fleet in Norfolk, Va., announced that the Saratoga, the attack carrier Lake Champlain, and a number of destroyers will participate in the "carrier task force training operation" in the Atlantic between Norfolk and Mayport, Fla.

Deployment of the Saratoga and the Champlain will bring to 15 the number of aircraft carriers now arrayed in the Pacific, Atlantic, and Mediterranean.

Movement of the new force along the Atlantic coast indicated that the super carrier Forrestal, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and 13 accompanying ships may have moved further eastward in the Atlantic, but there was no confirmation from the Navy. The force headed by the Forrestal has been "exercising" in the Atlantic since Nov. 7.

Repairman Held For Robbery of Evansville Firm

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (U. P.) — A radio and television repairman was held today for the $2,800 robbery of a federal savings and loan association here.

Police identified the gunman as Cletus Stone, 46, St. Louis, a parolee from a life sentence imposed in Illinois for a restaurant holdup. Stone was seized Thursday by police as he fled the office, and was identified by Barbara Stewart, 18, a teller, as the bandit who forced her to hand over about $14,000 in holdups last February and March.

Asked why he chose the same office to rob three times, Stone said: "It just looked easy. That's all I can say."

Strike Hits East, Gulf Coast Ports

NEW YORK (U. P.) — Longshoremen shut down East and Gulf Coast ports from Boston to Galveston today in a strike over a disputed contract for the New York waterfront.

Capt. William V. Bradley, president of the International Longshoremen's Assn. (Ind.), left a negotiation session at federal mediation headquarters Thursday night to issue the strike call for midnight—expiration hour of the twice-extended working agreement.

Elizabethtown Woman Dies

Mrs. Minerva Davis, 87, resident of Elizabethtown RFD, died at her home Thursday at 8:30 a. m.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1 p. m. at Keeling church in Hardin county. Rev. Raymond Rose will officiate and burial will be in Peters Creek cemetery.

The body lies in state at the family home. The Hosick funeral service of Rosiclare is in charge.

Junior Class Play Tonight At Bonnell Gym

Harrisburg Township high school's Junior class, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Ethern, will present its annual play tonight at 8 o'clock in Bonnell gymnasium. The play, a three act comedy, "We Shook the Family Tree," dramatized by Christopher Sergel from the book by Hildegard Dolson, has a cast of five men and seven women.

The characters are: Hildegard Dolson, who is tired of being a wallflower, Jane Capel.

Mr. Dolson, Hildegard's "long and enduring" father, Kendall McDonald.

Mrs. Dolson, Hildegard's mother who can't always understand her daughter, but loves her anyway, Kay Dixon.

Sally Dolson, Hildegard's younger sister who greatly admires and always idealizes her older sister, Karen Skaggs.

Bob Dolson, a fun loving boy who loves to tease Hildegard, Paul Miller.

Jimmy Dolson, the younger brother with a zest for electric warmers, Tommy Wilkinson.

Paige, a serious young girl of six. She likes to play postman with love letters, Judy Whiteside.

Ellie May, Bob's heart-throb, Linda Rude.

Jill, Ellie May's satellite, Judy O'Neal.

"Shortpants" Freddie Shermer, Eddie Quade.

Mr. Shermer, a stuffy banker, George Wright.

Mrs. Shermer, a somewhat fussy woman in her early forties, Linda Adams.

A general admission of 50c will be charged.

Ike, Cabinet Meet; First Since Election

WASHINGTON (U. P.) — President Eisenhower met with his Cabinet today for the first time since his re-election.

Members attending the 1 hour and 40 minute session declined to tell reporters whether any resignations were discussed. They referred questions to White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty.

Hagerty said "no mention" was made of possible departures from the Cabinet while he was present at the session.

All Cabinet members previously had gone through the traditional formality of submitting their resignations after the election.

So far none apparently has been accepted. Hagerty said Thursday he knew of no plans to accept any.

However, speculation that some cabinet members and cabinet-rank officials would be dropped continued. It centered particularly on Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson and Disarmament Adviser Harold E. Stassen.

Mrs. Herman Woolard of Near Norris City Dies

Mrs. Herman Woolard, 80, of the Salem community five miles southwest of Norris City, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Healy in Evansville Thursday at 12:30 p. m.

She is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Breeden, Granite City, and a son, Denny Woolard of Norris City, and the following brothers and sisters: John Keasler, Norris City, Mrs. Maggie Pemberton and Mrs. Myrna Hauser, both of Eldorado, Mrs. Lura Denny of Mt. Vernon.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at Salem church. Rev. Luther Howard and Mrs. Earl Hunt Jr. will officiate. The body was taken this morning from the Turner funeral home in Norris City to the residence to lie in state.

Lakers, Warriors, Pistons Win Pro Cage Games

By United Press
As far as the Minneapolis Lakers are concerned, a road trip is just a path leading toward the top of the standings.
The Lakers, who have only one home victory so far in the young National Basketball Association season, racked up their fourth road triumph Thursday, 103-86, over the Syracuse Nationals at Syracuse to move within one game of the lead in the Western Division.
In other Thursday night games, the Philadelphia Warriors rallied to beat the Rochester Royals, 92-83 at Hershey, Pa., and the Fort Wayne Pistons held on to beat the Boston Celtics, 98-95, at Fort Wayne.

New Shawneetown Coach Faces Task Of Rebuilding With Lone Regular

The Shawneetown Indians, who scalped everything in sight during the past two basketball seasons, face the 1956-57 schedule with just one regular from last year's fine team.
Bob Stewart, 5-9 senior guard, is the lone regular on Coach Lon McHaney's squad. So the coach, commencing "his coaching career this year, faces almost a complete rebuilding job.
Coach McHaney, a native of Odin where he played high school baseball and basketball, graduated from Southern Illinois university with the class of 1956.
In discussing the current Indian squad, McHaney said the players were showing lots of spirit and he was looking to the future rather optimistically. "We will win some games. The schedule is a tough one with some of our strongest opposition to be met early and away from home. However, I believe the team will get squared away after a few games and things will be okay," McHaney declared.
There are nineteen games on the regular schedule, 11 away from home and eight at Shawneetown. The team also plays in the Equality holiday tournament and in the Greater Egyptian conference tourney.

Coach Lon McHaney
The varsity squad is composed of three seniors, one junior, three sophomores and three freshmen.
The roster:
Nov. 17—Carrier Mills, there.
Nov. 21—Rosiclare, there.
Nov. 23—Grayville, there.
Dec. 1—St. Anthony of Effingham, there.

U. S., Russia Agree to Home And Home Meets

MELBOURNE — The United States and Russia today agreed to home-and-home track meets at Moscow in 1957 and in the United States in 1958.
The agreement was reached at a morning meeting of eight United States officials headed by AAU Secretary Daniel J. Ferris and a group of Russian officials.
"It all depends on whether the State Department rescinds the alien fingerprint law because the Russians won't stand for their visiting athletes to be fingerprinted," said Ferris. "But we had previous assurances from the State Department that the law is to be rescinded."
Konstantin Kroupin, president of the Soviet Athletic Union, broached the idea verbally and said it will be confirmed later with a written agreement.
"We were invited to go to the USSR last year, but we couldn't make it," said Ferris in recalling previous efforts to establish track competition between the two nations. "We issued an invitation in 1953 for the Soviet team to come to the United States, but it was called off because of Soviet objections to our fingerprinting laws. We hope that those laws will be off the books by 1958."
The Russians said they were planning a big sports carnival at Moscow next July which would include more events than the Olympic Games.

Dorrisville, Ridgway Win Midget Games

Dorrisville and Ridgway won in Midget conference cage play Thursday, defeating Broughton and Raleigh respectively.
Ridgway, after dropping three consecutive decisions, surprised Raleigh by taking a 3-2-7 decision. The loss dropped Raleigh to a 2-2 record.
The teams were knotted 13-all at half time, Ridgway edged out to a 25-23 three quarter lead, then held Raleigh to only two points the last quarter to win 32-27.
Dorrisville remains unbeaten in the conference after taking Broughton 57-32 for its fourth consecutive victory and the loss was Broughton's fourth without a win.
Joe Carnett, Dorrisville star, played his last game Thursday as he will be past the Junior high school age limit before the next game rolls around. However, Dorrisville added team strength with the enrollment of Jim Lamb, formerly of Cave-in-Rock.
Dorrisville coach Brose Phillips used 21 players yesterday. Others seeing action were Mickey Atkinson, Bob Brown, Mike Cline, Randall Cushman, Jim Dillon, Ted Fuston, Donald Hutchinson, Ronald Hutchinson, Ronnie Jordon, Larry Joyner, David Landis, Wendell McClusky, Bill McKeever, Mickey Rector, Roy Simpson, Robert Thompson, Alfred Warren, Teddy Wilson and Larry Bob Winters. In the Broughton lineup were E. Phillips, M. Phillips, Deen, Grisham, Burnett, Allen, Barker and Ellis.
Lineups for Raleigh and Ridgway respectively — Raleigh: Arfack, Wesley, Cochran, Rodgers and Woolard; Ridgway: Miner, Milligan, Hoke, Dixon, Sork and Cotton.
Muddy and Galatia play this evening and next week's schedule, Wednesday, Nov. 21, follows: Dorrisville at Muddy, Ridgway at Broughton, Galatia at Raleigh.

Rabbit Hunters Advised to Use Caution, Prevent Tularemia Infection

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.— "Rabbit of Public Health show that these hunters should use personal precautions have been largely responsible for the decline of the disease in Illinois. Last year 40 cases were reported, compared with 101 in 1954. As late as 1940, 272 cases were reported, while in the previous year 458 cases were reported, the highest number on record.
"Tularemia infects many wild animals, although it occurs most frequently among rabbits," Dr. Cross said. "The disease is transmitted to humans through a break in the skin or through the mucous membrane." Tularemia is rarely, if ever, transmitted from one person to another.
Dr. Cross said that the onset of the disease is usually sudden, accompanied by chills, fever and prostration. An ulcer may appear at the site of entrance of the organism, with swelling of the lymph glands in nearby parts of the body.
He said that hunters should avoid shooting slow-moving rabbits; nor should they pick up rabbits that are unexplainedly found dead. "It is advisable to wear rubber gloves while dressing wild game, particularly rabbits," Dr. Cross stated. "Any carcass found to have white spots inside, especially on the liver or spleen, should be burned. Persons handling such carcasses should wash their hands repeatedly with soap and water or a disinfectant."
Dr. Cross explained that thorough cooking of all wild game meat is important in the prevention of tularemia. He said that freezing of meat, even for long periods of time, is not effective in destroying the causative organism.

Junior High Fives Drop Two Games To Norris City

The Harrisburg Junior high school basketball teams opened the 1956-57 season Thursday night, hosting Norris City, and the visitors grabbed both decisions.
In the seventh grade game Harrisburg lost 32-23. Norris City led 11-5 at the end of the first quarter, 18-8 at halftime and 24-15 after three quarters were played.
A big second quarter in the main game, with Norris City outscoring Harrisburg 21-8, gave the White County team a 53-42 victory.
The score was tied at 9-9 after one period, then Norris City went on a scoring spree to lead 30-17 at half time.
Seventh grade coach Stobart Abney used Stan Wilson, Val Vineyard, Mac Mugge, Terry Hegglin, Johnny Gee, Curt Vick and Frank Banks. Seeing action for Coach Louie Belts' eighth grade team were Bob Karnes, Carl Shelton, John Meier, Dale Robertson, Harry Don Wirth, J. B. Henshaw and John Utter.

U. of Texas Denies Leahy Will Be Athletic Director

AUSTIN, Tex. — University of Texas officials today denied a report that former Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy's appointment as athletic director here would be announced soon.
Claude Volles, vice chairman of the university board of regents, said "there is absolutely nothing to it."
At Midland, Tom Sealy, chairman of the regents, called the report "absolutely unfounded." He said that Leahy "was contacted by some of our alumni—and I can tell you that some of our alumni have contacted other prominent coaches—but nobody, including Mr. Leahy, has been officially contacted."
The report originated with Sports Editor Naylor Stone of the Birmingham, Ala., Post-Herald. Stone said Thursday night that an announcement of Leahy's appointment would be made within 10 days and that his information came from "a high-ranking University of Texas alumnus" who has a "prominent part in selecting athletic directors and coaches at that school."

Billy Loes Found Innocent of Paternity Charges

NEWARK, N. J. — Baltimore Oriole pitcher Billy Loes was found innocent Thursday night of paternity charges brought by a waitress who is serving a prison sentence for attempted robbery.
Loes and Suzanne Fulinello, 24, were the only witnesses in the civil suit trial, which was instituted by the city of Newark because the child is a public charge unless its father is found.
Miss Fulinello, who has since borne another child, was brought from the reformatory for the trial. She said Loes had fathered her three-year-old daughter in a Miami hotel in 1952 when Loes was with the Brooklyn Dodgers at their spring training camp.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dittenbacher, D. D.
— Written for NEA Service —

"I just have too much to do!" We have all made such statements on many occasions. Work piles up and we are not able to organize our time and efforts. We become frustrated and so confused that we cannot do anything well.

When our chores, obligations, services and desires become so great that nothing seems to work out as it should, we are inclined to do the least important things. We omit items of first importance.

The secret to accomplishment is in maintaining a spiritual calm in which we can organize our efforts under the guidance of God. Furthermore we cannot put our spiritual obligations so far down the list that we never give them any attention.

We must learn to organize our lives so that we can accomplish as much as possible with the most reasonable amount of effort. We must learn to put first things first. Prayer and God's will are certainly first in importance. Without God there would be no work, no play, no satisfactions.

Rt. 13, New Shawneetown, Illinois

Look how much the Big M has grown for 1957—in size, power, weight—in everything that counts in a car!

NEW WIDTH—Notice how the BIG M's new breadth is dramatized by a massive new Jet-Flo Bumper. The oval shape of this graceful new bumper design is as functional as it is beautiful. It acts as a double bumper—provides both high and low protection. Notice the matching "twin"-styled rear bumper (right).

NEW OVERSIZED INTERIORS—There's more comfort in the front and back seats of the new BIG M. There's new hip room and leg room. As much shoulder room, for example, as in many of the most expensive cars. The floor is now recessed between the frame. The result: more headroom than ever before.

NEW LENGTH, NEW WHEELBASE—CLOSE TO TWO-TONS BIG. Every important dimension is bigger. In addition to the new length, wheelbase is a big 122 inches. And the 1957 Mercurys are up to 225 pounds heavier, too. A far lower center of gravity gives you an amazing sense of "nailed-down" stability on curves and corners.

NEW POWER—UP TO 290 HP

A 255-hp Safety-Surge engine is standard. A 290-hp Turnpike Cruiser V-8 is optional. And there are two Mercury engine "firsts." A Thermo-matic Carburetor controls the temperature of air the engine breathes. The results: extra power and economy. And, in the Montclair series, a Power-Booster Fan coasts when not needed for cooling—saves horsepower.

NEW DREAM-CAR DESIGN

1957's most advanced styling—a clean-cut, dynamic look that makes other cars look old-fashioned. The roof is gracefully slender—sweeps back over the rear window to provide extra headroom. The tail-lights have an imaginative V-angle slant. Here's America's first production dream car—styling that will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

DRAMATIC NEW FEATURES

Everywhere you look there's a new idea: an exclusive 7-position Keyboard Control that outdates ordinary, push-button transmissions, an exclusive Floating Ride with a cushioning action you have to feel to believe. You can even get a power seat that "remembers"—turn a dial and it finds your favorite seat position. But see everything. Stop in today.

We invite you to see this straight-out-of-tomorrow car today at our showroom.
